DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 4-5, 9-12 and 15 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 7/14/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-3 7-8 and 13-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kikuta.

The instrument panel 14 includes substrate 15 and pliable cover layer 16 extending beyond the substrate to form flexible flanges. The gap “g” between the door panel 2 and the pliable cover 16 being zero or more. See column 3, lines 19-23. When the gap “g” is zero the door panel 2 and the pliable cover 16 contact each other. Given tolerance variations and the geometry near corner 9, the pliable cover is inherently deformed when the gap “g” is zero.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kikuta in view of Shimabara et al.

Kikuta discloses the claimed invention except for the specific materials out of which the dashboard is constructed comprising moldable polymers.

Shimabara et al. disclose a dashboard including a substrate and a pliable layer which are constructed from moldable polymers.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to construct the dashboard of Kikuta out of moldable polymer materials as taught by Shimabara et al. as an alternate lighter weight construction arrangement.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Rhodes, Jr. discloses a dashboard pliable cover interacting with vehicle pillars.
